

From the Desk of
FLANNERY McDONNELL
Leprechaun at Large

*Almost got me, Young Trapmaster!
Your wee leprechaun trap was extra clever but it wasn't as clever as me!
I found my way out from your clutches quick as quick could be!*

But I left behind some delicious treats and blessings all around Some are already within your reach and others are still to be found!

*Six treasures in all are waiting around and here are your six clues
One treasure you already hold in your hand
And one is in your shoes!*

*And three more to find by yourself
as soon as they are seen In your clothes, and under a toy, and inside something green.*

*But the best treasure is the very last one you'll find it with this important clue.
You can see it inside the bathroom mirror because that treasure is You!*

Nice try on the trap, kid! Better luck next year!

Signed,

Flannery McDonnell
